STUDENT EVALUATION

Student Name: Gutierrez, Linda

COMPLETION OF COURSE TASKS AND COURSE PARTICIPATION:

Includes but is not limited to contribution to class activities, completing in-class assignments, attendance, homework and final projects.

The student successfully completed all of the required assignments which enhanced both her speaking and listening skills. Some of the activities included a Blog set up with required daily frequent postings and peer responses (this created a strong community with her other classmates), and Conversation Journals which required her to go out and interview native speakers. In addition, from these interviews she created and presented information on Seattle Neighborhoods, The Mohai Museum, The Burke Museum, and the Coffee to her classmates. Finally, throughout the course she carried out researched, focusing on one aspect of the American Cultural and from it presented a successful Final Project to the group.

INSTRUCTOR'S COMMENTS:

Linda is a bright student. She is very observant of the space around her and grasps ideas quickly. With her technological knowledge and capability she was willing to help others when they struggled with their technology issues. With her focus, she would be an asset to any institution or company.
